Auburn Park O. E. S.

A very pleasant evening was spent Dec. 28th at Auburn Park Masonic Temple when Elsie Seitz Baxter, elected to be worthy matron, and Chas. Ross Hoy, elected to be worthy patron, were installed.

The installing officers for the evening were: Grace Milligan as installing W. M.; Charlotte Hug, as installing marshal, and Lillian Parsons, as installing chaplain. Each made the installation very impressive. Minnie Clark, Elsie Peck and Marion Brooch were escorts.

The worthy matron was gorgeously gowned in pink brocaded satin trimmed in dainty laces and a bird of paradise trimmed her hair.

As she was escorted to the East, flowers were lavished on her and she was assisted by a little maiden. She passed through an arch of red roses formed by the young girls, each one dressed in white.

Kate O'Guenther, now junior past worthy matron, was presented with a jewel from Ida Welton, a past worthy matron. George Allen, junior past worthy patron, was presented with a jewel from John E. Day, a past worthy patron.

As the fine rays of our central star were installed, tiny tots, dressed as flowers appropriate to the colors of the degrees, carrying baskets of flowers, escorted each officer to her station.

Elsie Baxter received many gifts from her friends and the most wonderful evening ended with dancing.

We think Auburn Park Chapter No. 167, O. E. S., will have a wonderful year and we urge each member to come and help.

Stepanek's New Sign to Brighten Halsted St.

The new electric sign being installed at the Stepanek Corset Shop is surely a modern, neat and beautiful affair. Bearing the inscriptions of "Stepanek's Corset Shop," beautifully designed, this new equipment is certainly an asset to the street. Stepanek's store No. 2 has progressed rapidly since its opening by the policy of quality first, and with the business ability, service and types of merchandise offered by them, they are bound to grow by leaps and bounds.

"The Bat" Breaks All Records

All box office records for the Princess theatre were broken last week by "The Bat," the sensational mystery play by Mary Roberts Rinehart and Avery Hopwood. Beginning with the opening performance "The Bat" has taken hold of Chicago as no other play has ever succeeded in doing. Critical praise from the Chicago press was unanimous. "There will be only two social classes in Chicago," Ashton Stevens wrote in the Herald-Examiner. "Those who do and those who don't know the secret of 'The Bat.'" "So uncanny in its manipulation," Percy Hammond said in the Tribune, "that now and again you are impelled to whistle to keep from being afraid."

"The Bat" is truly a remarkable mystery play. From almost the rise of the first curtain until the final moment of the play thrilling situation follows thrilling situation until the playgoer is left breathless with excitement. "The Bat" might properly be styled an exciting guessing game between Wagenhale and Kemper, the producers; Mrs. Rinehart and Mr. Hopwood, the authors, and the audience. That its mystery is well nigh impossible of solution, however, is evidenced at every performance when the capacity audiences that have greeted "The Bat" at the Princess have been utterly dumbfounded by the amazing surprise of the last minute of the play. With "The Bat" as its attraction the Princess theatre once more takes rank with Chicago's leading theatres. This great mystery play will remain at the Princess for a year. Seats are now selling eight weeks in advance.

Miss Gladys M. Briggs, teacher of ukelele, entertained her pupils at a musicale and party on Wednesday afternoon, Dec. 29th, at her home, 7818 Union Ave. Music was enjoyed, bunco played, refreshments served and a souvenir given to each one. An enjoyable and entertaining afternoon was spent by all.

The annual Christmas tea party given by Anna E. Spring, 8424 Morgan St., last Tuesday was enjoyed by all. Twenty-five of the younger pupils were present; among them Mildred Kenney, Hildred Toepfer, Genevieve Knox, Ruth LaVoie, Violet Brun, Helen Kilgallon, Luella and Dorothy Spring, Margaret Weiss, Lillian Jesse, Rozella Baum, Edward Rickert, Ashton Humiston, Clyde Gunsaulus, Edna and Irene Fitzsimmons, Helen Elser, Louise Smith, Mary Conway, Kathryn McDonald, Elinor Anderson, Alice Petty, Nellie Flanagan, Bernice and Dorothy Berger. Prizes were won by Mildred Kenney, Lillian Jesse, Clyde Gunsaulus, Irene Fitzsimmons, Louise Smith, Kathryn McDonald and Elinor Anderson. Mildred Toepfer is a dear little dancer. A short piano solo was played by each one. The pupils were all presented with a photo of their dear teacher. They departed at 5:30 and said "Wish Christmas would come oftener."

Mr. and Mrs. Cline C. Brosius and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Schindler motored to Columbus, Ohio, over Christmas. It was twelve below zero in the country. Ask Charlie Schindler if he thought it was cold.

Calumet High School Parent-Teachers' Association, Normal Ave. and 81st St., held a business meeting Dec. 15th, making final arrangements for the Christmas tree. Some of the members acted as hostesses for the boys at the Great Lakes at the Jolly Tar club. These boys have shore leave every Saturday afternoon and Sunday. It is well worth while to lend a helping hand to these homesick lads. They are our boys.

Anna E. Spring spent New Year's day in Clinton, Iowa.

Silberberg and Bauer Offer First Annual Sale

Beginning tomorrow Silberberg & Bauer are presenting their first annual sale and in addition are offering the benefits of a grand purchase from the A. J. Bates Shoe Co. This enterprising concern is gaining a reputation of quality merchandise, and this type of merchandise they tell us is to be slashed and slaughtered in order to give the people of Auburn Park an example of the values offered by them, and besides they are doing their utmost to make their first sale a huge success.

Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Fry, daughter and son-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. J. Nahser, 7947 S. Peoria St., who are now living in Americus, Ga., wish all their friends and relatives in Auburn Park a prosperous New Year.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Clifford of 7643 S. Sangamon St. gave "some" party New Year's eve. Mr. Clifford made a special trip to Kentucky just a week before the party. We wonder why?

We may be a little late in announcing this item, but we just learned of it ourselves. Dad and Mother Nahser of 7947 S. Peoria St. were looking forward to their son, John, marrying Miss Grace Engel some time next summer, but son John asked Dad for his car one moonlight night last month to take Grace for a drive and they drove until they reached Crown Point, Ind., where they were united in marriage. When son John returned with his pretty wife to "Pa" and "Ma" Nahser, they admitted he slipped one over on them, but wished them all the success in the world.

Mr. U. F. Huber and Mr. Wm. Huber of Angola, Ind., are visiting their brother, Mr. H. A. Huber, of 7648 Normal Ave. They are in the city because of the serious illness of their brother, C. B. Huber. Mr. Huber has been very ill for some time and is now in a very critical condition.

We are all pleased to note that little Katherine Lange is recovering from pneumonia and will soon be out.

Federated Church Receives New Members

The workability of the federated idea in church work is demonstrating itself in that church. Under the leadership of Pastor A. R. Gay the church is rapidly becoming a real community enterprise. It is not confining its work to Sunday services, though these are now better attended and more effective than they have been for some time, but is reaching out and touching many phases of community life. As an indication of the growing popularity and effectiveness of this church it might be noted that the average attendance for the past month at Sunday school has been above the actual membership of the church, which is unusual in this city. On the first Sunday in December a number of new members were welcomed into the church. Last Sunday six more were welcomed and there are twenty more awaiting baptism or letters from other churches to unite with this church, and still others in the Sunday school who will probably present themselves to the church for membership in the near future.

Musical Concert at Auburn Park Federated Church

The musical concert given by the combined choirs of the Covenant Baptist church and the Auburn Park Federated church, assisted by Prof. H. Loomis, Mrs. W. S. Finn and Miss Helen Galloway in the Auburn Park Federated church Thursday evening, Dec. 30th, proved a splendid success. Every number was good. The extended applause by the audience showed their appreciation of each number. Some went so far as to state that it was the best concert of its type given in the park for some time. Another is under preparation that promises to equal or surpass this one if possible.

Beg Your Pardon

In last week's issue the types made us quote the address of Thomsen's Men and Boys' Store as 7742 S. Halsted St. Most every one, though we are sure know that this live wire organization is located at 7748 S. Halsted St.

On the evening of the 28th Miss Mary Alcom entertained quite a few friends from Parker. All enjoyed a pleasant evening.

GRAND PURCHASE SALE

2 in 1

2 in 1

We Are Going to Make This Sale the Greatest Bargain Opportunity Ever Offered to the Public in This Vicinity

We have made a large purchase of the well known A. J. Bates, Chicago company, who are retiring from business, at an enormous saving. This, coming at a time when it is customary to clear out our season's stocks, it enables us to offer to the public the most unusual savings ever heard of on high class footwear for the whole family. Thousands of pairs of high grade shoes will go in this sale at less than actual cost of manufacture. We want to make our first sale the talk of the neighborhood and we have exerted every effort to exceed by far your most hopeful expectations.

We intend to make the name of Silberberg & Bauer famous for good shoes with every household of this community and we invite you to come and convince yourself that it pays to take advantage of the unmatchable bargains we are offering during this great sale. Space would not permit us to list every bargain here and we are only mentioning a few of them.
